Otherwise Productions presents a touching story of the truth about Canadian immigration, The Saddest Girl in the World.

Winnipeg, Manitoba – July 17-27th

Otherwise Productions is proud to present a human story that illuminates the truth about contemporary Canadian immigration.

Described by audience members as, “delightful” and “beautiful!”, The Saddest Girl in the World exposes Natya’s struggle to forget a bloody past and fight for survival in her new country of Canada. Natya’s one possible ally is Ava: an innocent woman she has never met, whose dreams of jewels glimmer with hope.

The Saddest Girl in the World runs from July 17-27th at Red River College. For tickets phone Winnipeg Fringe Festival’s Box office @ 943-7464.

Visit www.saddestgirl.com for details.

MORE INFO:

This touching story about the foibles and follies of contemporary Canadian immigration is written and performed by Tina Teeninga, co-directed by Dirk VanStralen and Kathy Parsons, who also dramaturged the piece.

Otherwise Productions is proud to present a story by an up and coming playwright and actor, whose work has “vitality and theatrical instincts, combined with poetic sensibility and imagination.” (Ron Reed, Artistic Director, Pacific Theatre.)
